

Mr. Charlan

Charles (Lang) Charlan, 52 of Longview Community, Franklin, died Saturday, Jan. 9, after an extended illness. Born in Sanford, Fla., he was the son of Walter E. and Mildred MacLean Charlan. He was a veteran of World War II, a linesman and a member of Masonic Lodge 263, Pompano Beach, Fla.

Surviving are his wife, Emma, a son, Charles Jr., of Langwood, Fla.; a daughter Dawn Marie Martin, of Boca Raton, Fla.; a sister, Marie Donovaky, of Waynesville and two grandsons.

Memorial Services will be held Saturday, Jan. 16 at 2 p.m. at the Prentiss Church of God, 441 South, Old Georgia Road. Rev. Don Moffitt will officiate.

The family requests no flowers. Memorials may be made to the Cancer Society.