

Veteran Nurse Dies Here

MRS. Agnes McKinney Chastain, 67 year old resident of the Turtlepond Community, died at the Highlands Community Hospital Sunday following an illness of one year.

Mrs. Chastain had devoted her life to nursing the sick. She was a registered nurse and a graduate of the Telfair School of Nursing, of Savannah, Ga.

A member of the Highlands Methodist Church, services were held at her church Monday with Rev. Julian Adridge conducting the service. Burial followed in the Miller Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers were Jack Angel, Clyde Bingham,

Floyd Lamb, Urfald Holt, Ray McCall and J. B. Keener.

Mrs. Chastain is survived by two brothers, Wade and Mack McKinney, both of Highlands, and one sister, Mrs. Ella Sherrod, of Rhinebeck, N. Y.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 27 June 1968