

Monika Allison Childress, 63, of Tiger, died Monday, March 2, 2008, at Athens Regional Medical Center.

She was born Dec. 7, 1944, in Munich, Germany, to Arvin and Elizabeth Allison. She traveled extensively but spent most of her life in Florida. She worked with the Rev. Billy Graham and was active in missionary work abroad. She also was active at Liberty Baptist Church, where she was a member.

Survivors include: her husband, Stan Childress of Tiger; three sons and daughters-in-law, Ryan Eric and Dawn Childress of Knoxville, Tenn., Bryan Edward and Rose Childress of Port St. Lucie, Fla., and Stephen Stanley and Bridget Childress of Macon; two daughters and sons-in-law, Heidi and James Greene of Boynton Beach, Fla., and Tiffany Janina and Daron Davis of Atlanta; five grandchildren, Taylor Greene of Boynton Beach, Holly and Kiley Childress, both of Port St. Lucie, and Justin and Lindsey Childress, both of Macon; and several nieces and nephews.

Memorial services were held March 6 at Liberty Baptist Church with the Rev. Scott Cates officiating.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. An online guestbook is available at www.hunterfuneralhomega.com.

The Clayton Tribune, March 13, 2008