

Issac Dorsey Chitwood, 62, of Alto, died Saturday, June 23, 2007, at his residence.

He was born Nov. 10, 1944, in Habersham County to Joe M. and Ethel Louise Forrester Chitwood. He graduated from South Habersham High School and North Georgia Technical College. He worked as a carpenter for many years. He was a member of Cool Springs United Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his wife, JoAnn Wall Chitwood.

Survivors include: two sons and a daughter-in-law, Bryant and Shannon Chitwood of Cornelia and Joey Chitwood of Atlanta; two brothers, Billy Joe Rainwater of Jefferson City, Tenn., and John Green of Mount Airy; and his mother-in-law, Mae Ayers of Otto, N.C.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Whitfield Funeral Home, South Chapel, in Baldwin with the Rev. Larry Cannon officiating. Burial followed at the Level Grove Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to the charity of one's choice. An online register is available at www.whitfieldfuneralhomes.com. Whitfield Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, June 28, 2007