

Ollie Hendrix Hensley Cloer

A motel manager, Eastern Star member, and native of Madison County

Ollie Hendrix Hensley Cloer, 93, of Franklin, died Sunday, Oct. 27, in a Huntersville nursing home.

A native of Madison County, she was the daughter of the late John Henry and Finettie Shelton Hensley. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Thad Hez Cloer, two brothers and five sisters. She managed the Bella Vista Motel in McKinleyville, Calif., for a decade; was a member of Eastern Star, Nequassa Chapter No. 43; and attended the Church of the Nazarine in Franklin.

She is survived by two sons, John G. Cloer of Charlotte and Paul Cloer of Crescent City, Calif.; three daughters, Shirley Cloer Rocha of Bayside, Calif., Betty Cloer Wallace of Franklin, and Shungnak, Ark., Joyce Cloer Viale of Scottsdale, Ariz.; seven grandchildren, six great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be held Friday, Nov. 1, at Woodlawn Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers will be Matthew Wallace, Thad Cloer, Ed Cloer, Paul Cloer, David Viale and George Wallace.

Macon Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 1 November 2002.