

Miss Patricia Clouse

Miss Patricia Diane Clouse, 17 year old Franklin High School student died unexpectedly Saturday in an Asheville hospital following a very brief illness. She was the daughter of Charlie and Birdell Johnson Clouse and a member of the Junior class in the high school, where she was a good student and a member of the chorus.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Ridgecrest Baptist Church of which she was a member with Rev. Guy Duvall conducting the service.

Pallbearers were Milbern and Norris Clouse, Max Crawford, Billy Johnson, Benny Buchanan, and Ray Shuford.

Besides her parents, Miss Clouse is survived by one brother, Charles Clouse, of Asheville; two sisters, Mrs. Carolyn Bledsoe, of Winston-Salem, Mrs. Sandra Heist, of Lodi, Calif; and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Mary Johnson.

Bryant funeral home was in charge of the arrangements.
