

Kenneth Cobb

Kenneth Ray Cobb, 50, of Westminster, S.C., died Dec. 23, 2001 at Oconee County Hospital in Seneca, S.C.

Born in Oconee County he had lived most of his life in Oconee. He was a heavy equipment operator in the construction industry, a U.S. Army Vietnam veteran and was a member of Tabor Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife, Janet Stewart Cobb of Seneca, S.C.; three sons, Dale Cobb, Jason Cobb, Cody Cobb, all of Seneca, S.C.; two daughters, Christy Cobb of Lancaster, S.C. and Jennifer Cobb of Seneca, S.C.; parents, Furman D. and Hazel Towe Cobb, Sr.; two brothers, Furman D. Cobb, Jr. and Jeff Cobb, both of Clayton; two sisters, Wanda Holbrooks of Long Creek, S.C. and Angie Henslee of Westminster, S.C.; seven grandchildren; and a host of other relatives.

Graveside services were held Dec. 26, 2001 at the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church Cemetery in Clayton with Rev. Oliver Rice officiating.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, 27 December 2001