

Richard J. Cobb

Richard Judson Cobb, 85, died Thursday, March 6, in Highlands-Cashiers Hospital after an illness of three years. Mr. Cobb was born in Wisconsin, the son of the late J. M. and Lucy Cobb. In 1911 he married Louise Zoellner, of Macon County, who survives. He was a retired farmer.

Services were held Saturday, March 8, at 2 p.m. at the Highlands First Presbyterian Church, of which he was a member. Rev. Henry Mueller, pastor, officiated. Burial was in the Highlands Memorial Park with Maurice Cleveland, Richard Holt, Ralph Crunkleton, Richard, Malcolm and Julian Zoellner serving as pallbearers.

Surviving, besides the widow, are a number of nieces and nephews.

Neal and Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 13 March 1969