

Pamela W. Cochran, 66, of Tiger, died Thursday, July 26, 2007, at Northeast Georgia Medical Center from an extended illness.

She lived in Rabun County since 1994. She volunteered at Mountain Lakes Medical Center and was a member of Brooks United Methodist Church in Brooks.

She was preceded in death by a son, Craig Cochran.

Survivors include: her husband, Jere Neil Cochran of Tiger; a daughter, Cecilia Colucci of Houston; a son, Casey Cochran of Gainesville; and four grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Saturday at Brooks United Methodist Church with the Revs. Derek Porter and Margaret Howell officiating. Burial followed at Brooks Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society, breast cancer research, 2565 Thompson Bridge Road, suite 114, Gainesville, GA 30501. Ward's Funeral Home in Gainesville was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Aug. 9, 2007