

Mrs. J. B. Collins.

Passes Sunday At Home In Iotla Section

Mrs. Aric Morrison Collins, 72, wife of J. Baz Collins, died at her home in the Iotla section Monday morning at 3:45 o'clock. She had been in ill health for several months, and on February 23 she fell and fractured both legs.

Mrs. Collins, who was born on October 10, 1868, was the daughter of the late William M. and Clarinda Casler Morrison, of Iotla. On February 10, 1910, she was married to Mr. Collins. She was a member of the Cowee Baptist church, and had lived in the Iotla community all of her life.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 11 o'clock at the Iotla Methodist church, with the pastor, the Rev. Harry S. Williams, in charge. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Surviving, besides the husband, are one brother, James R. Morrison, of Iotla, and four sisters, Mrs. James H. Potts, of Franklin; Mrs. F. M. Ashe, of Green's Creek, Jackson county; Mrs. Lucy Jacobs, of Iotla, and Mrs. Alice Morrison, of Daytona Beach, Fla.

The pallbearers were eight nephews, Charles Morrison, Derald Ashe, Lawrence Potts, Arvil Swafford, Charlie Potts, Glenn Ray, Lyle Jacobs and Baxter Ashe.
