
Mae Carnes Cragg

Mae Carnes Cragg, 92, of Clayton, died Wednesday, Aug. 4, 2004, in Mountain View Community Living Center in Clayton.

She was born July 31, 1912, in Rabun County to Elisha and Martha Fincannon Carnes. She lived all her life in Rabun County. She was a homemaker and a member of Liberty Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by a brother, Hubert Carnes, and four sisters, Beulah Fincannon, Minnie McConnell, Bessie Hunter and Margie York.

Survivors include: two sons, Charles Cragg of Copperas Cove, Texas, and Leman Cragg of Denison, Texas; two daughters, Jo-Anne Cragg of Clayton and Martha Cragg Buchanan of Lawrenceville; three brothers, Buford Carnes of Clayton and the Revs. Olan Carnes and Cranford Carnes, both of Tiger; 10 grandchildren; and 12 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Friday at the Hunter Funeral Home chapel with Leman Cragg officiating. Burial followed in Liberty Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Aug. 12, 2004