

Robert Christopher "Chris" Craig

A native of New Jersey and construction worker

Robert Christopher "Chris" Craig, 36, of Katie Lane, Franklin, died Friday, April 11, 2003, at Mission St. Joseph's Hospital in Asheville. He was born in Belleville, N.J., the son of Robert W.

Craig of Vermont and Florence E. Cheesemah of New Jersey.

He worked in remodeling and construction. "Chris was an exceptional and loving father," family members said. "He enjoyed the outdoors and building or remodeling homes. His beautiful smile and warm heart invited all those that met him to love him. He was kind and had a lending hand to those in need."

He is survived by his fiancé of 2 1/2 years Kerry Holbrook Harrington; three stepdaughters, Kayla

Harrington, Katie A. Harrington and Bailey E. Harrington of the home; two sons, Michael C. Craig of New Jersey and Christopher R. Craig of the home; one stepson, Jacob G. Harrington of the home; maternal grandparents, Florence and Elmer Cheeseman; paternal grandparents, Mildred and George Craig; and one brother, Scott W. Craig of New Jersey.

Memorial services will be held at a later date.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge of local arrangements.
