

Mamie Crane

Mrs. Mamie Wood Crane, 62, of the Shortoff Community, Highlands, died Tuesday, March 19, at her home after a number of years of declining health. A native of Macon County, she was the daughter of the late Robert and Mattie Calloway Houston. She was married, first to Eugene C. Wood who died in 1950 and, later, to Floyd P. Crane who survives.

Also surviving are three sons, Victor Wood, of Highlands, and Charles and Leroy Wood, both of Manassas, Va.; three daughters, Mrs. Juanita Burnette, of Cullowhee, and Mrs. Catherine Jennings and Mrs. Jean Taylor, both of Pinellas Park, Fla.; five brothers, Walter and Sam Houston, both of Highlands, and Charles, George and Carl Houston, all of Manassas, Va.; one sister, Mrs. Marie Moody, of Highlands; ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held Thursday, March 21, at Shortoff Baptist Church, of which she was a member, and burial was in the Scaly Mountain Cemetery. The Rev. Mack Reed officiated and pallbearers were Eugene, Bobby and Clinton Houston, Furman Dalton and Bobby and Joe Bell.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
