

Homer Crawford

Passes Oct. 12 At Home
Near Franklin

Homer Crawford, 51, died at his home on Franklin Route 2 on Tuesday afternoon, October 12, about 5:30 following a three months' illness. His death was caused by leakage of the heart.

Mr. Crawford was a native of Haywood county, and had made his home at Crabtree prior to his move to Macon county about two years ago. He had joined the Crabtree Baptist church about 25 years ago and lived a consistent christian life.

Funeral services were held at the Coweeta Baptist church Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. O. E. Croy, pastor of the Macon circuit; Rev. W. L. Bradley, a Baptist minister of Oak Grove, and Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, were in charge of the services. Interment was in the Rush cemetery.

Mr. Crawford is survived by his widow, the former Miss Lily Noland, and seven children; two sons, Paul and Homer, Jr., and five daughters, Mrs. Ed. Sanford, of Clyde; Mrs. McCracken, of Crabtree; Misses Wilma, Evelyn and Noma, of Franklin Route 2.

The Franklin Press, 21 October 1937