

Mr. Crawford

James Henry Crawford, 63, of Route 1, Highlands, died unexpectedly Tuesday, Oct. 5, in the Highlands-Cashiers Hospital. He was the son of the late Samuel and Jane Webb Crawford and was married to Mattie Zachary Crawford, who survives. He was a real estate broker and had operated the Highlands Barber Shop for 16 years, then was a real estate developer and builder. He was a deacon and member of Highlands First Baptist Church.

Surviving, besides his wife, are one son, James H. Crawford Jr., of Monroe, Ga.; one daughter, Betty Jean Fisher, of Franklin, Va.; two brothers, Luther Crawford, of Apopka, Fla., and George Crawford, of Crawfordsville, Ga.; two sisters, Mrs. Jack Cabe, of Sealy, and Mrs. Jack Haskett, of Sylva; and two grandchildren.

Services were held Friday, at 2 p.m., in Highlands First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Lewis Gibson and Dr. William Pepper officiating. Members of Masonic Lodge No. 435 served as pallbearers. Burial was in Highlands Memorial Park.

Memorials may be made to Highlands Volunteer Fire Department, c/o Bobby Houston, Route 1, Highlands, N.C. 28741.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.