

George F. Crisp

George Franklin Crisp, 94, of Route 5, Mountain Grove Community, died Thursday, March 23, in Angel Community Hospital after an illness of several months. He was born in Jackson County, a son of the late William Thomas and Lucy Jones Crisp and was married twice, first to Maude Carroll and second to Emma Edith Corbin, both deceased.

Mr. Crisp was a retired farmer and logger and, early in life, taught singing schools.

Funeral services were held Saturday, March 25, in Holly Springs Baptist Church, of which he was a member, and burial was in the church cemetery. Officiating ministers were the Reverends Judson Hall, Cecil Frady, Joe Bishop, and Judson Smith. Pallbearers were his grandsons, Bill and Charles Crisp, Roger Tallent, Billy Taylor, Tommy Corbin, and Richard Sorrells.

Surviving are three sons, Grady and Roy Crisp, of Liberty, S. C., and Frank L. Crisp, of Charlotte; four daughters, Mrs. L. L. Shaver, of Canton, Mrs. Helen Taylor, Mrs. Ila Mae Sorrells, and Mrs. Marie Corbin, all of Franklin; one brother, Luther Crisp, of Gainesville, Fla.; one sister, Mrs. J. M. Smith, of Candler; 31 grandchildren and 37 great-grandchildren.

Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral Home.
