

DEATH CALLS

H. V. CUNNINGHAM

Died at His Home in Durham August 24 After Two Days Illness—Interred at Franklin Sunday.

H. V. Cunningham, 43, a former citizen of Franklin, died at his home in Durham August 24 and was buried here Sunday. The deceased was seriously ill for only two days before his death, but had suffered extremely with rheumatism for two or three years. He had made an out-standing success in business in his adopted city.

Some years ago he was married to Miss Elizabeth O'Kelly of Durham who with three children, James, Robert and H. V., Jr., survive the deceased. He is also survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Cunningham of Franklin, and the following named brothers and sisters: W. C. Cunningham of Franklin, Mrs. Ida Wright of Atlanta; J. K. Cunningham of Norton, Va.; Charles Edwin Cunningham of Akron, Ohio; Marshall Cunningham of Arizona; Roy and Miss Margaret Cunningham of Franklin and Mrs. Sallie Moore of Franklin.

The remains were interred at the new cemetery west of town Sunday. Rev. R. F. Mock, pastor of the local Methodist church was in charge of the funeral services. A wilderness of flowers showed the respect and esteem in which the deceased was held by hundreds of friends and relatives in his native town.

The Franklin Press, 30 August 1928