

Funeral Services Held For Sam Cunningham

Funeral services for Sam Cunningham, 67, well known Macon county farmer who died Wednesday night of last week at Angel Hospital, were held at 10 o'clock Friday morning at Clark's Chapel Methodist church. The Rev. J. A. Flanagan, pastor of the Franklin Presbyterian church, and the Rev. E. R. Eller, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church, officiated.

Pall bearers were Lee Leach, George Mashburn, Claude Russell, Will Sellers, Ed Dowdle and Claude Calloway.

Mr. Cunningham was a member of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics.

Surviving Mr. Cunningham are his widow, two daughters, Miss Essie Cunningham, of Franklin, and Mrs. J. B. Sherrill, of Asheville; and seven sons, Walter and Carl Cunningham, of Waynesville; Paul Cunningham, of Rainbow Springs; Fred Cunningham, of Baltimore, Md.; Roy, Bill and Henry Cunningham, of Franklin.