

Edward C. Dalton

Edward Cleo Dalton, 36, formerly of Highlands, died Wednesday, January 1, in a Gainesville, Fla., hospital. He had been ill for the past 14 months.

Son of Dock and Callie Ammons Dalton, he had been living in Ocala, Fla., for the past 12 years. Mr. Dalton was a barber and owned a barber shop in Ocala.

Funeral services were held Sunday at 2 p.m. in the Short Off Baptist Church, of which he was a member. Officiating were Rev. Everett Wilson and Rev. Earl Dendy. Burial was in the Highlands Memorial Park Cemetery with Joe, C. L. and Donnie Calloway, Bobby Houston, Billy Bryson and Bobby Creswell serving as pallbearers.

Surviving are the widow, Glenda Stewart Dalton, formerly of Jacksonville, Fla.; a son, Eddie, and a daughter, Lisa, both of the home; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dock Dalton of Highlands; two brothers, Alonzo Dalton, of Statesville and C. T. Dalton, on Manassas, Va.; two sisters, Miss Mary Sue Dalton, of Highlands and Mrs. Lillian Wood, of Manassas, Va., and a number of nieces and nephews.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.