

Death Takes Mrs. Davis, Franklinite

Mrs. Bessie Davis, a native of Franklin and resident of Greensboro for the past 11 years, died last Thursday, November 18, at Wesley Long Hospital in Greensboro at the age of 63.

Funeral services were conducted the 20th at Florida Street Baptist Church and burial was in the Guilford Memorial Park.

Surviving are her husband, W. Hoyt Davis; a daughter, Mrs. Carl Ellison, Jr., (former Miss Anna L. McNeal), of Greensboro; four brothers, James A. Reeves, of Pontiac, Mich., Johnny Clyde Reeves, of Dallas, Verden Reeves, of Gastonia, and Gordon Reeves, of Durham; two sisters, Mrs. Elhi Slagle, of Dallas, and Mrs. Amy Hall, of Cornelia, Ga.; two step-daughters, Mrs. Verrill Curtis, of Asheville, and Mrs. Mace Mascola, of Yonkers, N. Y.; three stepsons, Howard McNeal, of Marion, Bruce McNeal, of Asheville, and Robert McNeal, of Alexandria, Va.; and four grandchildren.