

FUNERAL HELD FOR MRS. DEAL

Well Known Holly Springs
Woman Dies After Illness of 14 Weeks

Several persons from all sections of Macon county attended the funeral at Holly Springs Baptist church at 11 o'clock Monday morning of Mrs. Lydia Catherine Berry Deal, prominent resident of the Holly Springs community, who died Sunday morning at Angel Brothers' hospital after an illness of 14 weeks. Mrs. Deal, the wife of Pierce Deal, was 72 years old, having been born June 17, 1860.

The funeral was conducted by the Rev. J. M. Vinson, pastor of the Holly Springs church, assisted by the Rev. Eugene Eller, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church, and the Rev. A. S. Solesbee.

Active pallbearers were Mrs. Deal's nephews, T. W. Angel, Jr., Don Henry, Jim Berry, Parker Higdon, Marion Deal and Dewey Rochester. Honorary pallbearers were C. L. Ingram, Harve Cabe, Dr. W. A. Rogers, R. E. Patillo, J. B. Justice, Frank I. Murray, W. D. Elliott, Wayne McCracken, C. G. Elliott, Sam Murray and Joe Palmer.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Deal is survived by five daughters, Mrs. Weaver Landrum, Daytona Beach, Fla.; Mrs. R. L. Fullbright, Lake Junaluska; Misses Elizabeth, Callie and Angie Deal, of Franklin Rt. 4; two sons, Alex and William, Franklin Rt. 4; three sisters, Mrs. Harriet Higdon, Higdonville; Mrs. T. W. Angel and Mrs. R. F. Henry, of Franklin; and three brothers, Logan, Jack and Alex Berry, all of Macon county; and five grandchildren.

Mrs. Deal joined the Baptist church in early life, professing faith at a meeting conducted in Ellijay church by the Rev. John Woodward. She was a kindly, charitable woman who was held in high esteem and affection by all who knew her.
