

William L. Dean

William Lambert Dean, a Macon County native, died in Texarkana, Texas, on January 24. He was the son of the late George W. and Aletha Parrish Dean and was born July 10, 1883, in the Oak Grove Community. After completing high school in Franklin he became secretary - treasurer of the Texarkana Casket Company, a position he held until retirement. He was a member of the Covenant Presbyterian Church, the Masonic Lodge, and the Lions Club.

Funeral services were held on January 26, in the East Memorial Chapel in Texarkana with the Rev. William Riley

The Franklin Press, 19 February 1970