

Mrs. Laura DeHart

Mrs. Laura Ramsey DeHart, 88, of the Tellico Community, died Wednesday night, August 16, at the residence of Mrs. Paul Smith after a long illness.

Surviving are a son, Creed DeHart of Asheville; seven daughters, Mrs. Weaver Cothran of Nantahala, Mrs. Luther Conner and Mrs. Clarence Jones of Asheville, Mrs. Carl Morgan, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mrs. Thad Stockton and Mrs. Grady Guffey, all of Franklin; 18 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 11 a.m. Saturday in Tellico Baptist Church, of which she was a member for 70 years.

The Revs. Judson Smith and C. C. Welch officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery. Grandsons served as pallbearers.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 24 August 1972