
Joseph Dillard

Joseph "Joe" Frank Dillard, 64, of Atlanta, died Wednesday, July 18, 2001 at his residence.

Born and raised in Dillard, the son of the late Barnard and Curtis Louse Malcolm Dillard, he had lived in the Atlanta area for the past 37 years and was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta. He had retired from the state Department of Transportation after 34 years of service.

Survivors include a brother, Malcolm Dillard, and sister-in-law, Charlotte Dillard of Dillard; a nephew, Zack Dillard and niece-in-law, Karin Dillard; one niece, Carrie Kuehne and nephew-in-law, Brent Kuehne; two great-nephews, Nicolas Dillard and Nathan Dillard; two great-nieces, Jesslyn Kuehne and Rachael Dillard.

Funeral services were held Sunday, July 22, 2001 at Dillard United Methodist Church with the Rev. James Turpen and the Rev. Doug Volk officiating. Interment followed in Wesley Chapel Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Dillard United Methodist Church.

The Clayton Tribune, 26 July 2001.