

Lester B. Dills

Lester Berick Dills, 74 year old Macon County native died Saturday in the Angel Community Hospital. It appeared that a heart attack was the cause of Mr. Dills death.

The son of Thomas and Laura Shope Dills, he married Exie Henderson July 4, 1918.

Funeral services were held Sunday at the Coweeta Baptist Church, of which he was a member, with Rev. Andrew Cloer and Rev. Claude Ledford conducting the service. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were James Mason, Nelson Shope, Bennie B. Haire, Tom Alley, and Robert Stewart.

Besides his wife Mr. Dills is survived by four sons, Alex Dills, of Route 1, Dillard, Ga., Halen Dills, of Warne, Glen and Jerry Dills, of Franklin; five daughters, Mrs. Maxine Woods, of Route 6, Franklin, Mrs. Modine Stafford, of Columbia, S. C., Mrs. Selma Hogsed, of Franklin, Miss Evelyn Dills and Miss Marie Dills of the home; three half-brothers, Herman Dills, of Brevard, Herbert Dills, of Morganton, and Larry Dills, of Franklin; one sister, Mrs. Allie Ramey, of Tellico Plains, Tenn.; two half-sisters, Mrs. N. S. Daves, of Route 1, Franklin, and Mrs. Carol Pressley, of Canton.

Neal and Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.