

Pamela "Pam" Sue Dodgins Hayes, 47, of Toccoa, died Sunday, July 13, 2008, in Duluth.

She was born Feb. 15, 1961, in Rabun County to the late Arthur and Ruth Henslee Dodgins. She spent the last three years in Toccoa. She was a homemaker and a member of Blue Heights Baptist Church.

She also was preceded in death by: a brother, Norris Dodgins; and a sister, Joyce Dodgins Allen.

Survivors include: her husband, Ricky Hayes of Toccoa; two daughters and sons-in-law, Marsha and Warren Nicholson and Trina and Cory Martin, all of Toccoa; three brothers and a sister-in-law, Mike Dodgins of Clayton, Don Dodgins of Rabun Gap and Thomas and Vera Dodgins of Lakemont; a sister and brother-in-law, Carolyn and Charles Holt of Mountain City; and five grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Hunter Funeral Home with the Rev. Danny Cannon and Lloyd Hunter officiating. Burial followed at Pickett Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. An online guestbook is available at hunterfuneralhomega.com.

The Clayton Tribune, July 17, 2008