

Lindsey Douthit

Lindsey Douthit, 73 year old Nantahala native, died Monday in the Andrews hospital.

A retired farmer, he was a member of the Briartown Baptist Church.

The son of the late Monroe and Jan: Douthit, he was married to Addie Davis Douthit.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Briartown Baptist Church with Rev. France Postell, Rev. Theodore Denny, and Rev. John Raby taking part in the service. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

Members of the Nantahala Rescue Squad served as pallbearers.

Besides his wife survivors include two sons, James Douthit and Herbert Douthit, both of Nantahala; one daughter, Mrs. J. D. Smith, of Franklin; and one brother, George Douthit, of Nantahala.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 30 December 1971