

Mr. DuJat

John Charles DuJat Jr., 85, of Route 8 Franklin, died Thursday morning in the Asheville VA Medical Center.

A native of New York, he was a resident of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for 18 years before moving to Franklin in 1981.

He was a son of the late John Charles Sr. and Ruth Petrie DuJat. He retired as a master sergeant after 27 years with the U.S. Army, including service in World War I, World War II, and the Korean conflict.

Surviving are two daughters, Vickie DuJat Rosati, of Franklin, and Carol Naas, of Inverness, Fla.; a son, John Tyson DuJat, of Franklin; a brother, Harold G. DuJat, of Central Islip, N.Y.; and two grandchildren.

No services are planned.

Thos. Shepherd & Son Funeral Directors, Hendersonville, was in charge.

The Franklin Press, 9 August 1982