

Horace W. Duvall

Horace Wayne Duvall, 78, of the Cowee Community, died Saturday morning in a local hospital after being in declining health for a number of months.

He was a lifelong resident of Macon County and a veteran of World War I. Duvall was a retired miner and farmer.

Surviving are his wife, Novia B. Duvall, four sons, Garland, J. B., Ralph, and Paul, all of Franklin; two daughters, Mrs. Allen Berry and Mrs. James Teems, both of Franklin; a brother, Claude Duvall, of Franklin; and 16 grandchildren.

Services were held at 2:30 p.m. Monday in the Cowee Baptist Church, of which he was a member.

The Rev. Glenn Whitney and the Rev. C. C. Welch officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Nephews served as pallbearers and honorary pallbearers were his Sunday School class.

Arrangements were under the direction of Neal and Potts Funeral Home.
