

Larry Murray Duvall, 60, of Franklin, passed away Sunday, Sept. 30, 2007.

Born in Macon County, he was the son of Louise Murray Duvall and the late Fred Garland Duvall.

He was a 1965 graduate of Franklin High School. He was a U.S. Army veteran, serving two years including a tour of duty in Vietnam. Larry was an auto mechanic for Berry Tire Service.

In addition to his mother, he is survived by a son, Todd Duvall and wife April of Franklin; stepdaughter, Tina Nesbit and husband Carl of Franklin; one brother David Duvall and wife Margaret of Aynor, S.C.; three grandchildren, Colby Duvall, Larry Nesbit and Kimberly Nesbit, all of Franklin; one nephew, Chris Duvall; one niece, Mandy Duvall; several aunts and uncles residing in Franklin, whom he loved very much and supported him throughout his illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 11 a.m., in the chapel of Macon Funeral Home, with Revs. Lloyd Fish and David Powell officiating.

Burial was in the Cowee Baptist Cemetery with military rites conducted by the VFW Post 7339 and the American Legion Post 108. Pallbearers were Dale Duvall, Charles Berry, Jimmy Teem, Johnny Teem, Eric Duvall and Carl Nesbit.

The family received friends Wednesday, from 10 to 11 a.m., at the funeral home.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to Veterans Memorial Macon County, P.O. Box 474, Franklin NC 28744. Online condolences are available by visiting www.maconfuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 5 October 2007