

Irvin L. Easton

Word was received here Wednesday (yesterday) morning of the death of Irvin Lee Easton in Lenoir City, Tenn. His death came following an illness of five months.

Mr. Easton, 66, was born in Schuyler, Virginia.

He came to Franklin in 1925 while working as a crane operator on the construction of the Lake Emory Dam.

He married the former Miss Carolyn Sloan on October 1, 1925.

In addition to his wife, Mr. Easton is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Eleanor Ann McCowan and one son, Dewey Easton, both of Lenoir City, Tenn.

Tallent Funeral Home of Lenoir City, Tenn., is in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 28 August 1969