

Cona Edwards

Cona English Edwards, 89, of the Five Points community, died September 20, 2001 in Rabun County Hospital.

Born in Rabun County, she was the daughter of the late John R. and Delphia Hunter English. She was a beautician and homemaker. She was a member of the Clayton Baptist Church where she taught Sunday School in the youth department for approximately 40 years, a member of the WMU, a member of the Rabun County Hospital Auxiliary and for several years she served on the election board.

She was preceded in death by brothers, Earl, N.J. and Grover English.

Survivors include her husband, Robert L. Edwards, Sr., of the home; one son and daughter-in-law, Bobby and Linda Edwards of Clayton; one sister, Connie Coleman White of Rabun Gap; four grandchildren, Edd Edwards of Lakemont, David Edwards of Largo, FL., Julie Harrup and Phillip Crunkleton, both of Clayton; eleven great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held September 23, 2001 at the Clayton Baptist Church with Rev. Mike Campbell, Rev. Alton Dendy and layman Lloyd Hunter officiating. Burial was in the Rabun Memory Park.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.