

Fred Edwards Succumbs Friday At His Home

Dock Fred Edwards, 56, farmer and press operator, died at his home on Franklin, Route 3 Friday after an illness of two weeks.

Funeral services for Mr. Edwards, a Macon native, were held at Clark's Chapel Methodist Church Sunday afternoon by the Rev. R. L. Poindexter and the Rev. C. C. Welch. Burial was in the church cemetery.

He was born August 20, 1903, the son of Philip and Uthens Gayer Edwards. He was married Jan. 21, 1940 to Miss Pearl Vanhook, who survives.

Other survivors include three brothers, Harve and Harry Edwards, of Pontiac, Mich., and George Edwards, of Waynesville.

Pallbearers were Gordon Ammons, Harve Vanhook, Roger Vanhook, Vance Vanhook, Ray Vanhook, and Gay Sutton.

Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 24 July 1958