

John Wesley Edwards, 90, of the Horse Cove Community, Highlands, died Monday, Feb. 8, in C.J. Harris Community Hospital, Sylva, after a brief illness. He was the son of the late Alex G. and Alpha Speed Edwards, and was married to the late Grace Carpenter. He was a retired builder and farmer, and spent a number of years in Wyoming before moving to Highlands. He was an honorary member of the administrative board of Highlands United Methodist Church.

Services will be held Thursday (today), Feb. 10, at 2 p.m. at the Highlands United Methodist Church, of which he was a member, and burial will be in Horse Cove Cemetery, with Rev. Bennett Bullard officiating.

Surviving are one son, Donald W. Edwards of Highlands; two daughters, Mrs. Benny Archibald of Noblesville, Ind. and Mrs. Richard Melvin of Highlands; and four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A number of nieces and nephews also survive.

The family will receive friends from 12:30 to 1:30 Thursday (today) at Bryant Funeral Home Chapel in Highlands. Memorials may be made to the Highlands United Methodist Church or to the Horse Cove Cemetery Fund.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 11 February 1982