

Funeral Rites For Eugene A. Elliott.

Eugene A. Elliott, 86, died at the home of his son, William Elliott, in the Holly Springs community on Thursday morning at 11 o'clock following an illness of one week. Death followed a stroke of apoplexy.

Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Holly Springs Baptist church. The Rev. James I. Vinson, pastor, officiated. Interment was in the church cemetery.

Mr. Elliott, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliott, of the Holly Springs community, had lived in Macon county until 17 years ago when he moved to near Murphy. On Wednesday, realizing the seriousness of his condition, he asked to be brought back to his old home place in the Holly Springs community. He was taken there and died the following afternoon.

Mr. Elliott was twice married. His second marriage was to Miss Lillie Kilpatrick of Sweet Gum, Ga.

Pallbearers, all grandsons, were Fred Elliott, Wylie Elliott, Wade Elliott, Reid Elliott, Lawrence Elliott and Clyde Elliott. Honorary pallbearers were Harve Cabe, John Justice, R. M. Crawford, J. B. Justice, H. G. Brendle and E. V. Ammons.

Flower girls were his granddaughters, Mrs. Maude Gosnell, Mrs. Cora Frady, Mrs. Nellie Johnson, Mrs. Kate Moore, Mrs. Rosa Bolick, Mrs. Wade Elliott.

Surviving are the widow; seven children by his first marriage, Mrs. Roxie Moffitt of Prentiss, Mrs. Mary McConnell of Hiawassee, Ga., Will and Charles Elliott of Franklin R. F. D. 4, John Elliott of Peachtree, Sam Elliott of Monroe, Wash., and Thomas Elliott of Mt. Vernon, Wash.; 32 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren.