

Last Rites For Mrs. Jane Elliott Held Wednesday

Funeral services for Mrs. Jane Elliott, 70, were held on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Bryant funeral home, with the Rev. J. F. Marchman, pastor of the Franklin Baptist church officiating. Interment followed in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Elliott, who suffered a stroke of apoplexy five months ago, died at the home of her son, George Elliott on Bidwell street on Tuesday morning at 12:45 o'clock. She was the widow of the late Jim Elliott, and a member of the Watanga Baptist church.

The pallbearers included Walter W. McConnell, Fred Jacobs, Roy Roland, James Hauser, Thad Patton and Harley Baldwin.

Surviving are two sons, Geo. Elliott, of Franklin, and Will Elliott, one half-sister, Mrs. J. S. Womack, and a number of aunts and nephews.

The Franklin Press, 31 May 1945