

Samuel W. Elliott

Samuel Willard Elliott, a native of Graham County who has for some time resided in East Franklin died February 25 in a Buncombe County rest home. He was the son of John and Hazeltine Slaughter Elliott.

On September 3, 1921, he married Dixie Calhoun, a native of Swain County. Mr. Elliott had formerly been an employee of Bemis Lumber Company and the North Carolina State Highway Department.

Funeral services were held at the Mountain Creek Baptist Church Friday, February 28 with Rev. C. C. Welch, Rev. Guy Duvall and Rev. Otis Orr taking part in the service.

Besides his wife Mr. Elliott is survived by three sons, Swann Elliott, of Franklin, John Elliott of Warner Robbins, Georgia, and Cramer Elliott, of United States Air Force; two daughters, Mrs. Azalea Slaughter, of Charleston, S. C.; and three half-sisters, Mrs. Maude Rogers, of Marble, Mrs. Ann Lunsford, of Robbinsville, and Mrs. Mary Adkins, of Robbinsville.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 6 March 1969