

Macon Native Dies In Truck Wreck Monday

Carl Edward Farmer, 36, Macon native, and independent trucker, was killed in a wreck near Kokomo, Ind., Monday night about 10^o o'clock when his steel-loaded tractor-trailer rig smashed into the back of another loaded with tile.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Farmer, of Franklin, Route 2.

Funeral services are slated today (Thursday) at 2 p. m. at the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge.

The Franklin Press, 5 June 1958