

rites held for farmer

Funeral services for Carl Edward Farmer, an independent trucker who was killed in a collision with another truck June 2 near Kokomo, Ind., were conducted at the Pleasant Hill Baptist Church last Thursday afternoon.

Officiating were the Rev. James A. Sanders and the Rev. Woodrow J. Wilson, of Bryson City. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were Wayne McConnell, Ted and Fred Farmer, Leonard Meffitt, Glenn Farmer, and Robert Ledford.

Mr. Farmer was born Nov. 19,

1921, the son of James Frank and Zoa Dehart Farmer, of this county.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Louise C. Farmer, of Franklin, Route 2; three sons, James and Jerry, of Route 2, and Ronnie, of Kokomo; three daughters, Euna Ray and Bertha Sue, of Route 2, and Brenda, of Kokomo; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Farmer, of Route 2; a brother, J. L. Farmer, with the U. S. Navy in France; two sisters, Mrs. Louise Smart, of Mildabrand, and Mrs. Thurmon McConnell, of Route 2.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 12 June 1958