

Mr. Field

James Levi Field, 89, of Chiefland, Fla., died Tuesday, Jan. 22, in a Gainesville, Fla., medical center.

A native of Oil City, Pa., he was a lieutenant and a U.S. Navy veteran of 21 years.

He is survived by four sisters, Helen Estell of Franklin, Grace Hancock of Chiefland, Mildred McGuire of Franklin and Margaret Kirkwood of Pascagoula, Miss.; one brother, Lloyd Field of Crestview, Fla., and several nieces and nephews.

Services will be held Jan. 25 at 11 a.m. at Palms Woodlawn Cemetery in Naranja, Fla. Burial will be held in Palms Woodlawn Cemetery. Rev. Michael Home will officiate.

Memorials may be made to the charity of one's choice.

Hiers Chiefland Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 25 January 2002