

DEATH OF LITTLE BOBBIE FISHER

The death angel again visited the home of Mrs. Bob Fisher to claim the charming little girl of eight years, Bobbie, the youngest of nine children.

Mrs. Fisher has been called on to endure more than the most of us. Eighteen years ago she and her husband gave up two precious little ones, who were separated but a few days in their death; only ten years later her husband was taken very suddenly, due to an accident with a team; and on the sixth instant she gave up little Wayne, a boy of ten years, and now the baby girl. May the great God of mercy comfort her and the remaining children.

The neighbors and friends have been very thoughtful and kind in this last bereavement as to forever endear themselves to her and her friends and relatives. We never know the worth of friends until such occasions call from them such sturdy qualities. Thanks to everyone.

(Signed) One that knows and loves.

The Franklin Press, 21 June 1928