

Susie Smith Fisher

Susie Smith Fisher, 81, of Clayton, died Wednesday, Sept. 24, 2003, in Baldwin.

She was born in Rabun County to Will and Connie Lovell Smith.

She was a homemaker and operated a cattle and chicken farm for many years.

She was a member of the Clayton First United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, William C. Fisher Sr., and a daughter, Linda Fisher Wilburn. She was the last member of her immediate family, which included eight children.

Survivors include: a son and daughter-in-law, Cliff and Kathy Fisher of Clayton; a daughter and son-in-law, Juanita and Roy Hannaford of Gainesville; six grandchildren; and several great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday with layman Lloyd Hunter officiating. Burial followed in Rabun Memory Park.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Oct. 2, 2003