
Mr. Fisk

Francis "Frank" Fisk, 91, of Franklin, died Wednesday, Feb. 28, at a local hospital.

A native of Detroit, Mich., he was the son of the late Fed English and Elizabeth Pennington Fisk. He retired after 30 years from Chrysler Motor Co. as a supervisor in the inspections department, and was a member of Faith Baptist Church.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Jessie Woodward Fisk, who died in 1999.

He is survived by one sister, Margaret Fouts of Franklin; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m., Friday, March 2, at Fouts Cemetery.

Macon Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 2 March 2001