

Mrs. Folding

Virginia Lilley Folding, 65, of 21 Meadowbrook Ln., died Sunday, Jan. 3, in Angel Community Hospital.

A native of Tyler, Tx., she had lived in Macon County for the past seven years. She was a member of Franklin First Baptist Church.

Surviving are her husband, James A. Folding; three sons, James R. Sutter of Penene, Fla., Wayne Sutter of Hollywood, Fla., and Gary Sutter of Margate, Fla.; a stepson, James L. Folding of Melbourne, Fla.; a stepdaughter, Kathy Baker of Brooksville, Fla.; her stepfather, Andrew Tremaine of Tucson, Ariz.; and 13 grandchildren.

Graveside services were held at 11 a.m. Wednesday in Woodlawn Memorial Park. Rev. Bob Page and Rev. Mickey Duvall officiated. Pallbearers were J.G. Homes, George Hogsed, Brad Hogsed, Clarence Masten, Quinton Holder, Harry Bowen and Tedd Bowen.