

George Andrew Foster, 66, died Friday, Dec. 30, 2005, at his home after a lengthy illness.

He was born and raised in Clayton. He moved to Florida 25 years ago and lived in Gainesville for 15 years. He was a longtime employee of Osteen Construction.

He was preceded in death by: his wife, Thelma Jean Foster; two daughters, Joyce Privette and Andrea Burt Myers; and his parents, Frank and Blonnie Foster.

Survivors include: a daughter and son-in-law, Pamela Gail and Duane Pollard of Lake City, Fla.; five grandsons, Dustin Foster, Darrell Pollard, Drew Privette, Jarrod Pollard and Toby Harrell; four granddaughters, Amanda Burt, Victoria Burt, Serena Myers and Allison Pollard; seven brothers; and a sister.

A memorial service will be held at a later date at Dee's Funeral Home in Lake City, Fla.

The Clayton Tribune, Jan. 5, 2006