

Sue Knight Foster, 73, of Clayton, died Sunday, June 24, 2007, at Friendship Health Care in Cleveland.

She was born Aug. 20, 1933, in Pikeville, Tenn., to Johnie Wilbur and America Hattie Jane Turner Knight. She was a homemaker and retired service industry worker. She was involved with activities at the Rabun County Senior Center until her health kept her from participating. She attended Dillard United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by: her husband of 55 years, Paul F. Foster, on Feb. 5; a daughter, Susan Jeanine Foster; a brother, Clyde Knight; three sisters, Ruby Yeargin, Lunie Alexander and Mary Lou Brown.

Survivors include: two sons and daughters-in-law, Paul Charles and Joyce Foster of Eastanollee and John and Fran Foster of Cleveland; a daughter and son-in-law, Kimberly Foster and David Crunkleton of Tiger; a brother and sister-in-law, N.J. and Joyce Farmer of Crossville, Tenn.; a sister, Fairdell Wyatt of Pontiac, Mich.; nine grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Beck Funeral Home with the Rev. Doug Volk officiating. The body was cremated, and the remains were buried with her husband's at Bethel Baptist Church Cemetery.

Memorial donations may be made to the Rabun County Senior Center. Beck Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. An online register is available at www.beckfuneralhome.com.

The Clayton Tribune, June 28, 2007

