

FUNERAL HELD FOR J. A. FOUTS AT IOTLA CHURCH

Final rites for Jacob Astor Fouts, 17, who died at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lack Barnard, of the Iotla section, Monday morning, were held at the Iotla Methodist church Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, with the Rev. H. C. Freeman, pastor, conducting the services. Interment was in the Methodist cemetery beside his mother who preceded him to the grave in his infancy.

The deceased joined the Iotla Baptist church last March, and had lived a very devoted life since. He was of a sunny and genial disposition, one who was well liked by all his comrades, and the large crowd attending the funeral testified to the high standard which he held in his community.

He is survived by his father, Mr. W. T. Fouts, his stepmother, several half brothers and sisters, and his grandparents. He was a nephew of Dr. J. H. Fouts, of Franklin.

The Franklin Press, 26 November 1931