

Herman H. Fox

A former steel worker and WWII Army veteran

Herman H. Fox, 85, of Canton, died Friday, Oct. 18, at his residence. A native of McKee, Ky., he was the son of the late Henderson H. and Martha Morris Fox. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two sisters, Lola McDaniel and Cora Ogle. He as a former steel worker with Detroit Steel Co., in Mansfield, Ohio, and was a WWII U.S. Army sergeant and veteran.

He is survived by his wife of 52 years, Garnet Jane Snipes Fox of Canton; one son, Herman H. Fox Jr. of Berea, Ky.; two daughters, Susan Fox of Canton and Janet Eileen Fox of Florida; one brother, Everett Fox of Modesto, Calif.; and one grandson.

Graveside services were held Saturday, Oct. 19, at Woodlawn Cemetery. Rev. Eddie Stillwell officiated and military rites were conducted by VFW Post 7339 and American Legion Post 108.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 22 October 2002.