

Mr. Fox

Lowell H. Fox, 58, of Iotia Road, a native of Fostoria, Ohio, died Wednesday, May 24, in a Fostoria hospital.

He was an Army veteran of the Korean conflict. He retired in 1979 as general manager and vice-president of manufacturing at Roppe Rubber Corp., in Fostoria, after 17 years of service. He attended the Iotia Baptist Church in Franklin and was a member of Fostoria Elks Lodge.

Surviving are his wife, Beatrice Brady Fox; three daughters, Kathy Marie Frank of Holgate, Ohio, Linda

Dillon and Deborah Sue Fraley of Fostoria; two brothers, Paul Fox of Fostoria and Eugene Fox of Lake Orion, Mich.; two sisters, Pearl Reinhard and Annabelle Stak of Fostoria; and seven grandchildren.

Services were at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, May 27, in Mann-Hare Funeral Home, Fostoria. Rev. Steve Reedus officiated. Burial was in Memory Gardens, near Arcadia, Ohio.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Macon County or to Betty Jane Center in Tiffin, Ohio.