

Mrs. Frady

Macon Native, Dies At Age Of 79 May 31

Mrs. Amanda Frady, 79, a native of Macon County, died last Thursday, May 31, at her home in the Iotla community after a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held at the Iotla Baptist church Friday at 11 a. m. with the Rev. William L. Borrells officiating. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Born October 10, 1871, Mrs. Frady was married October 10, 1902 to Jack Frady, who survives.

Other survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Alfred Teems, of Cullasaja, Mrs. Glenn Tal-lent, of Franklin, Route 3, and Mrs. Earl Emory, of Franklin; 10 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Pallbearers were Lester and Glenn Campbell, Ellis Buchanan, Leland Roper, Fred Willis, and Eli Welch.

Potts Funeral home was in charge of arrangements.